 - Walk along the first stage of the Ignatian Way, from Loyola to Zumarraga (approximately 4- hour walk)

Situated in the Urola valley, the sanctuary is built around the tower house of the Loyola family. Two events make Loyola a centre for pilgrimage: the birth of Inigo López de Loyola in 1491 and his conversion in 1521. There are four key moments in the life of Iñigo that make his home a place of welcome, encounter and reflection, opened to pilgrims and visitors from all around the world, from the 16th century until today.
